

1997 Homecoming Queen — Jennifer Mills

Homecoming Queen Jennifer Mills is the seventeen-year-old daughter of Harold and Debby Mills. She has attended Kermit schools throughout her educational years. As a member of KHS, she has excelled academically as well as athletically.

Jennifer served as class vice-president two years, a member and officer of Student Council three years, and a member of SHIELD, FCA, and Beta Club three years. She received recognition in Who's Who Among America High School Students for four years. In addition, she received K-Awards in math, history, biology, keyboarding, CHE, and journalism/photojournalism.

As an active participant in sports, she played varsity sports four years which include volleyball, basketball, softball, track, and cheerleading. She received honors by being selected to the All District Teams in volleyball and basketball. In addition, Jennifer was selected to the NCA All American Cheerleading Squad her junior and senior years.

As a recipient in personality polls, Jennifer was elected Homecoming Queen this year and Homecoming Princess her freshman, sophomore, and junior years. She received additional honors by being elected Miss KHS, Most Beautiful, Most Athletic Girl, Best Figure two years, and Class Favorite four years.

Jennifer commented, "This year's homecoming was the best ever because the guys won the game. During my high school years it was the first homecoming game we won, and I think we will all remember it for a long time. Watch out Greenwood, here we come!"
