

Todd,
 You've always been our "first", and we've enjoyed every minute watching you grow up. We're so proud of everything you've accomplished, and we know that high school has been only the first step in making your dreams come true. Keep focusing on the future and believing in yourself because we'll always be there to love and support you. Don't forget your favorite words: Remember the Alamo!

Love, Mom and Dad

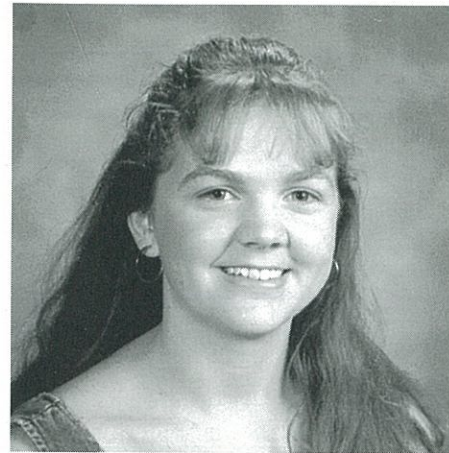

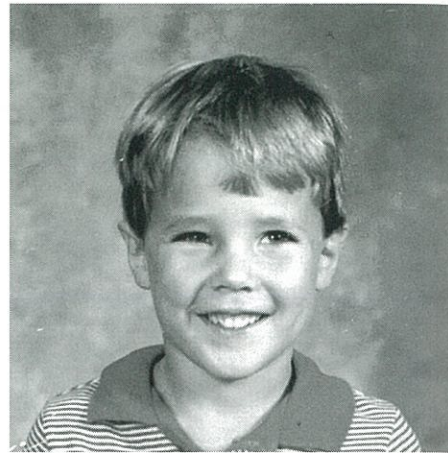

Cody Clmer,
 We're proud of you and hope you get to be our second "Horned Frog."

Love, Mom and Dad

Zach,
 Continue to walk with your head above the crowd. Follow your dreams. We're proud of you!

Love, Dad, Mom, and Staci

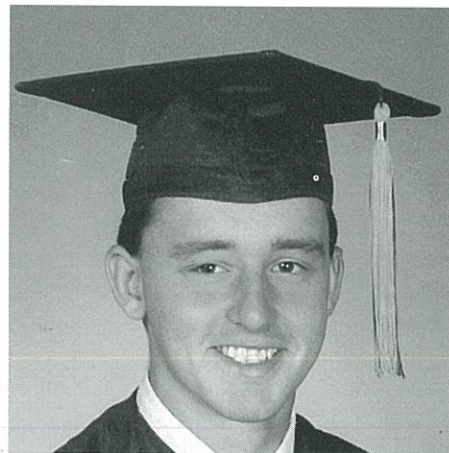

Congratulations! Lorenda
 "Today, Tomorrow, and Always"
 For Today . . . congratulations on the goal that you've achieved
 On the work that you've accomplished, the diploma you've received.
 For Tomorrow . . . best of wishes for success throughout the years.
 And for Always . . . lots of happiness as each new day appears.

Love always; Mom, Dad, Jennifer, and Heather

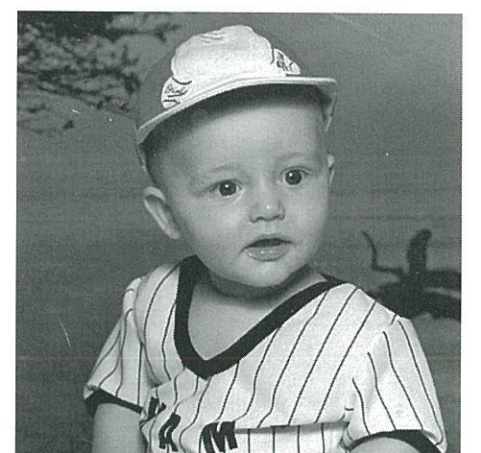

Tina,
 To our bright shining star all grown up and ready to move on.
 Congratulations, may God bless you and we love you.

Love and kisses,
 Mom, Dad, Steve, Stephanie, and D'Linda

Congratulations Richard,
 You have now finished the first few innings of your life and now are about to start the Seventh Inning Stretch.

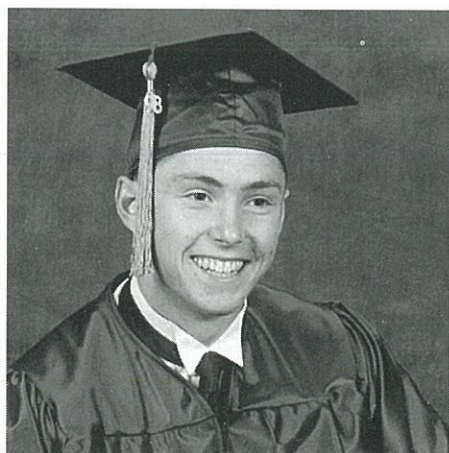

Good Luck
 We all love you!
 Dad, Paw, Brandon, Bradley, and Cooter

Adelma,
 As a baby you were beautiful and sweet; and now as a young lady you are beautiful, sweet, and smart. Everyone that knows you, can not help but to love you!

"Mita" we love you and are proud of you!

Your family.

Robert,
 You have grown into a fine young man and a great son. We are so proud of you. May God guide you in everything you do.

Love, Dad, Lauri, Kira, and Wade
