Tennis Team

The Yellow Jacket Tennis team gave an excellent effort all year long and walked away with a 4th place showing.

The boys were led by singles players Zach Belcher, Jesse Bell and Chad Notgrass. Zach Belcher walked away with his second consecutive District 4-3A Championship. He placed fourth or alternate at Regionals. All the boys played well throughout the year, and showed that next year will be strong also.

The girls were represented by doubles teams Alecia Howard - Jessica Chavez, Griselda Trejo - Michelle Rushing and the lone singles player Victoria Hernandez. All players gave an excellent showing all year long, and showed improvement all throughout the year.

The team played well all year long and always represented Kermit in a positive way. This years team consisted of four seniors. We would like to thank them for all their time and effort that they put into tennis. Next years team will be young but promising with a little work.

Zach Belchor won first in District 4-3A and placed fourth or alternate at Regionals.
