To our beautiful daughter Daydre:
We are proud of what you have achieved and of the spectacular person that you have grown up to be. Your independence, determination, and drive are assets that will help you attain your goals and make your dreams a reality. Never learn the meanings of the word "can't", always give 100%, and above all keep the Lord first in your life. We love you and are extremely proud of you!

A daughter is one of the nicest things to have; she's a treasure, my blessing, one of the most valuable things in my life. She is the one, who will always be beside me, through the laughter, and through each and every tear. She's the one thing you can always rely on; the one you can open your heart to, she believes in you the way no one else seems to.
Of all the things she wears her smile is the most important.
Jacqueline mi reina,
You are my daughter, my treasure, my blessing.
