"So Close Now" by Eli Young Band

I've got the streets memorized
I see the faces embedded in my mind
I keep on fightin' the urge to go But I've got nothing in common with the town I've come to know So I am

So close now to walkin' away About to walk the path I gotta take

I am packin' up and heading out Cause I can't sleep I'm dreamin'
way to loud

I'm so close now, I'm so close now to gettin' out

Same old lines, the same routine Nothing changes, that's not good for me

I need a break, I need something new

I need to replace these old worn out broken shoes

I've got that truck all loaded down I should've known how hard it'd be to leave this town
I am
