 We have watched you grow through the years and you have turned into a handsome young man. Now as you move into this next phase of your life, reach for the goals that you have set for yourself and remember to get the most out of everyday, and always remember to stay close to God as you journey through life.

To our beautiful girl Crystal:
 You are truly a blessing and an inspiration to us all. Oh, what we would give to make time stand still and keep you with us forever. You are a young lady with dreams to pursue. God had given you qualities that some people take a lifetime to cultivate.

Cocoa Garza
 I would like to start by thanking our dear Lord for all Seniors specially my lovely daughter, I have always told her, if all kids were like her we would have a wonderful world, Cocoa and I came along way, we stuggled very much through our lives together, we have good times and bad, and this is one of our best times, she did just like I figured she would. I wish you the best, because you deserve it. May the Lord be with you forever, Good luck in the future
 Love always your MOM.
 God Bless You!
 Congatulations you did it Mama I love you.

Dear Lauren,
 What a whirlwind 18 years it has been for us; but what a ride. Your high school resume speaks for you and itself. However, as you know if you trust in your faith, family, friends and self you can accomplish anything. This is just the beginning! We are so proud of the wonderful young lady you have become, and look forward to your very bright future as you journey to Baylor! "Go Bears!"
 We love you!!! Mom, Dad and Lindsay

"For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the Lord, thoughts of peace and not of evil to give you a future and a hope. Then you will call upon Me and go and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart." Jeremiah 29-11:13

Estamos muy orgullosos de tenerte mas orgullosos de que estas graduando te deseamos lo mejor en la vida. Te queremos mucho tus papas.
