To Forest our one and only son. You have achieved more than any parent could ever ask for, accomplishing more goals than most people acquire in a lifetime. You already have goals that you have set to attain, and we know that you can do anything and achieve all that you desire, just continue growing into the hardworking and intelligent young man that you are, well on the way to becoming. You have the ability to go above and beyond your wildest dreams in life, because of your bright and caring ways. May god bless you in health, love, prosperitey, and most of all happiness. We are extremely proud of you.

You have grown, and worked through the years to be, the beautiful and successful, young lady you are today. So go out into the big world, and continue to be the most amazing girl ever. Help make everyone's life as wonderful as yours.

Mi Nina, Crystal,
Quando naciste y te tuve entre mis brazos llenaste de ternura mi alma y nunca pense que se llegaría el año de tu graduacion tan pronto. Que Diosito te llene de bendiciones y haga tus sueños realidad. Your dad, Mom, Brothers, and Sisters love you very much, too protective, but will always be here for you. You brighten up our lives and always be (nuestra nina) May your future be whatever you want it to be, successful, happy, etc.
Love you
