

To our beloved son Joey Morales, You have worked so hard to get where you are now. We couldn't be any more proud of you. Mamas wish is for you to further your education and become someone successful. Your little brother always tells us I want to be like Joey, so you have inspired him so much. After graduation remember it is not ending its just a new beginning for you. May the Lord give you the strength to keep going strong.

Dear Sloane,
I knew you would be an awesome sister ever since i could walk to you. I look up to you because youre like my beauty queen!! We always look like models walking around in the mall!! Remember when you had just picked me up from skating and mom called and we joked about how she is starting to get to the "age". We will always be close and have great memories. Even though we fight, we always just get over it and let it go right over our heads!!!! Thanks for taking me everywhere with you even if you had to, we still had a blast!!!! I love you so much and I will miss you when you leave! Good Luck!
Love,
Your awesome little sister... Payton

Cody,
As I sit here and think back 11 years ago when you came into mine and your dads lives, and my how you have changed our lives. Your unconditional love, your laughter, and your humor, you have affected so many people with your personality. We are so proud of the fine young man you have become. Go my son into the world with all our love.
