

Blanca, Te deseo lo mejor en tu futuro, no hace mucho tiempo que estabas jugando con tus muñecas. Estuviste conmigo desde que tenías cuatro años, eres como mi propia hija. Tu eres la última de todos los hijos que te cuidamos. Estoy muy orgullosa de ti y sé que vas a salir adelante con la cabeza bien alta, y no vueltes atrás sé que nosotros hemos pasado por malos y buenos tiempos y hemos sufrido mucho. Te felicito por terminar la escuela, que Dios te bendiga te quiero mucho.

Tu Abuelita, Manuela M. Valenzuela

Aleeza,

Congratulations miya on your accomplishments. It's been a journey watching you grow up into a beautiful young lady and mother. I wish you and Lluvia all the best in the world.

Love You Always

The Lord smiled down on us when you came into our lives. Your personality, sense of humor and in many cases wisdom and insight, are all traits for one your age. We still see the little boy with his big brown eyes interested in all the animal food, ordering your food by walkie-talkie to your "GEE" so you wouldn't have to get up, and carrying around your beloved "cow pillow". Change comes, and it changes us. You're the guy that has to stop and think is this a good choice or a bad choice. Dare to reach higher, try harder, and run the good race the rewards are worth it. No matter how far you go, you will always have a place to belong, to come home to. You'll always be in our hearts and prayers. We are so proud of you son,

Congrats Taylor, we are proud of you! What a journey watching you grow through the years. Seems a short time ago you wore your Batman cape as superhero, dazzling us all with magic, scoring soccer goals, touchdowns, and homeruns and protecting home plate. Rounding bases and jumping the ball to the checkered flag. Continue flying high following your dreams, stay true to yourself, and enjoy the ride of your life! Never forget how much your family loves you and you will always be our "Little Man Tate"

Much love and prayers
