

Class of 2013 Then & Now

Kristin,

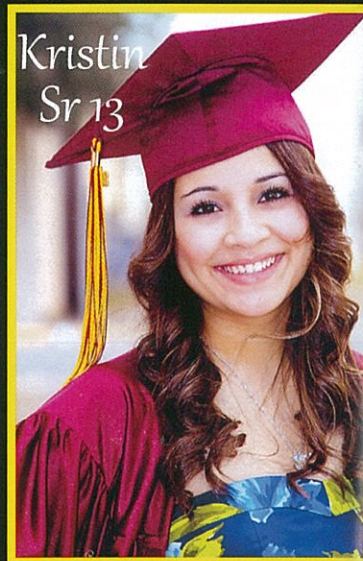

You are a blessing...

Sometimes when I look at you I can't help but smile inside; smile with quiet pride for all that is you your kindness, your strength, your faith. I want you to know that I love you and think you are one remarkable woman.

Love you,
Mom, Dad and Family.

Yuli,

Wow! You did it! You graduated from high school! This is just another one of your accomplishments. You've worked hard to accomplish so many things in life that just leaves me amazed. Words can't even begin to describe how proud I am of you. You've grown up to be a beautiful, intelligent, hard-working, young lady. Keep up the good work, trust in God, and you will go far

We love you very much!

Amanda Polanco

Mandy,

I am so proud of you because your goal up to this day has been to seek the kingdom of God and share His love and compassion. You're always seeking the best in people and as your mother, you have taught me many things: One of them is the ability to walk away with your head held high when you've tried your hardest and given your all but fell short. Thank you for sharing your late night talks, friendship, ups and downs, special days of school games, proms, trips, and overall the respect that you have given me as your Mom. I love you my best friend.

Love You,
Mom

Brandon,

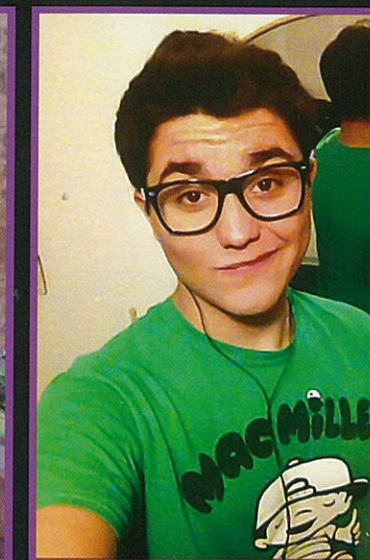

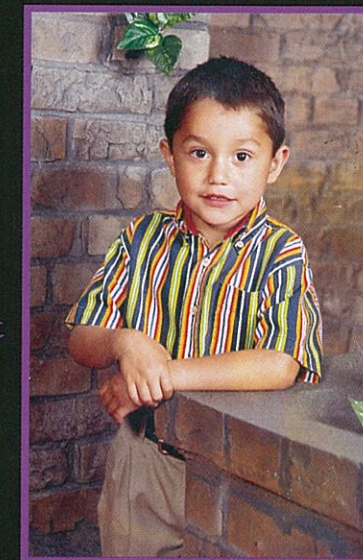

We closed our eyes but for a moment, and suddenly a man stood where a boy used to be. We may not carry you in our arms any longer, but we will always carry you in our hearts. You have given us so many reasons to be proud of the man you have become, but the proudest moment for us is telling others that you are our son!

May God bless and watch over you as you enter a new phase of your life. Follow your dreams!

We love you!
