Our Dearest Marcus,

For a while, time seemed as though it was standing still while you were busy growing up. Now the time has come to say once again how proud we are of you. Marcus, the future is not in stone so whatever you choose, either college or work, continue to put GOD first and he will bless you and your endeavors. You have been a blessing as a son and we are very proud of the young man you have become.

God bless you always!

Austin,

It is so hard to believe that the time has come for you to spread your wings and fly the nest. Stay true to Him and keep shining your light. Our love and prayers are with you always...

Brooklyn,

We are blessed to call you Daughter, as you have always made us proud. Just as the day you were born was a great accomplishment for me and your mother, your graduation is not only another accomplishment for us, but a great accomplishment for you. This is another beginning to the rest of your life. You have made me (your Dad), Kendra (Mom), Roxanne (Mom), all of your brothers and sisters, along with the rest of your family... very proud. As a child you were always very curious and enthusiastic about everything and this, along with your faith in God, has made you the beautiful young adult you are today. We are excited to join in this event with you as you have over come a few of life's obstacles and made it through. I would like to quote from the Bible, ISAIAH 41:31 as I believe this reflects of you: "But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint." Always remember this as your journey through life and may God Bless and keep you always.

We love you very much... Larry Owens, Kendra Alvarez, Roxanne Owens, and all of your family.

Ma-Maw would have been so proud.

With love always...

Cristal Zubia
