August 21, 1995, I was blessed of giving birth to you my miracle child. After I was told I couldn't have any children. Now I look at you and realize you are our pride and joy. We are very proud and grateful that you have accomplished alot of things in life. You have been through alot but now it's time for the next chapter in your life. Congratulations to you MJJA!! You did what we couldn't do. We love you very much, and wish you the best in your life.

Always love you,
Mom & Stepdad Jose

To my adoring son,

You have grown into a man right before my eyes and i can't believe this has come. You have been a wonderful son, a caring brother and an inspiration to all of us. You have shown us that if you work hard and believe in God then anything is possible. We are excited to see what the future holds for you. We know that you will make the best of it. Congratulations and know that we are proud of you!

Love,
Mom, Cody, LeeAnn and Hunter

It seems like just yesterday you were learning how to walk. Now you walk alone with no help. We are very proud to say you are a hardworking, responsible, mature daughter. We are very proud of your accomplishments through your journey in life. You are our sunshine even when skies are grey. You brighten everyone's day with your smile. We love you and we wish you blessings through your entire life. It has been extremely hard to let go.... but we know your going to be fine. Love you Sunshine.

From your Mommy, Chito, Bella, Adrian, and baby Urijah

Nataly Our Princess,

Congratulations! You made it! These past 18 years you have grown into a beautiful, strong, hardworking lady. In your future I see great accomplishments coming your way because of your greater ambitions in life. We wish you lots of happiness and success. Enjoy your journey, and may God bless you along the way.

Love always,
Mom, Dad and Brother
