

Then & Now

Alexandra Juarez

Your heart is beating with God's love, open it to others, He has given you gifts and talents, use them for His glory. He goes before you each step of the way, walk in faith. Take courage and walk into the unknown with the One who knows all.

We are proud of you

To my dearest daughter,

My fondest wish is that you leave this moment and fly out like a free bird. Go fourth and pursue all your dreams. Live life to the fullest and make sure your happiness is second to none. And while your at it, just remember every time you need a hug or a place to call your own, I'm always here.
I love you- Momma

Mariam Carreno

Mi princesa. Estamos orgullosos de ti, al saber que has transitado por un camino lleno de obstaculos y alcanzaste una meta. Deseamos que continues y hagas realidad tus suenas. Eres la luz que nos ilumina dia a dia y nas llena de amor. Te amamos hija.
