To Coach Johnson

Safely may we say that "Coach" has the good will of every student and teacher in the school, for gladly would his Wildcats fight for him. Often has he led his men to victory in athletic contests, and often has he planned a victory by instilling in the fellows that idea of good sportsmanship. On this ideal Coach has built a strong athletic organization in Wink. Surely it is his thought as he works with his "boys" as it was with the great poet:

"Build today, then, strong and sure,
 With a firm and ample base;
 And ascending and secure
 Shall tomorrow find its place.

Thus alone can we attain
 To those turrets, where the eye
 Sees the world as one vast plain,
 And one boundless reach of sky."
