LETITIA RIXON
Coach

Tribute to Coach Nixon

Who could beat the girls' basket ball team? Who could defeat them again we asked! No answer came! No team, we then replied! Who was responsible? "Lady Rixon!" came the roar of the girls who had associated with Coach for two years. - As she approached her team

"Her air had a meaning, her movements a grace;
You turned from the fairest to gaze on her face;
And when you had once seen her forehead and mouth,
You saw as distinctly her soul and her truth."

Top Row: Louise Rhodes, guard; Violet Nickles, jumping center; Beatrice Mulkey, running center; Verrah Mae Ramsey, guard; Faye Cass, running center.
