

DEDICATED TO  Wink High Football Team  To a team e'er ready to fight, And who fought with all their might. To a team who was loyal and true To our dear ol' Wink High School.  A FRIEND	Piggly Wiggly All Over the World    Where the Little Red Wagon Meets the Limousine
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Little boy to his companion: "My big brother has got the mumps in the school house."

Compliments of the

Casner Chevrolet Company

Wink, Texas

Compliments of  Texas Electric Company  Wink, Texas	Humble Products and General Tires They are just like our school THE VERY BEST The Home of Humble Courtesy Cards Washing and Greasing—A Specialty  Your Patronage Appreciated  Five Point Service Station Phone 111                      Box 607
------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

"Pig" Box—"Young man, do you know who I am?"

Billy—"No, but if you remember where you live I'll take you home."

Mary Abbie—"Just think, it took fourteen squirrels to make that coat."

Dahlia—"Yes, isn't it wonderful what they can train animals to do nowadays?"

"If Mr. Nuzum doesn't take back what he said this morning, I'm going to quit school."

"What did he say?"

"He said I was expelled."

