

THE PEP SQUAD

"Fight, team, fight!!!" rang the Pep Squad's rousing cheer, over and over, never tiring, leading, urging the team on to victory. Do you realize what this meant to every boy on the team. It stirred new vigor, hope and enthusiasm and spurred him on to do his best. He knew there was support backing him, someone who was eager to have him win. Wink High School Pep Squad's loyalty did this very thing.

The students, knowing and realizing how essential a pep squad is to every school, organized on September, 1929, under the capable leadership of Anna Mae Tyra and Willie Smith.

The clever and colorful uniforms of white trousers, orange sweaters and tams carried out the school's colors of orange and white. Sweaters were awarded the cheer leaders, Willie and "Hot Shot" (Anna Mae). Wherever you saw one of these uniforms, you saw pep, but whenever you saw the entire squad at a game with their sponsor, Mrs. Erma Johnson, you saw pep personified or "plenty of pep."

These girls supported the team at every game played away from home as well as those on their own gridiron or court. Realizing the importance of a pep squad, let us do better than we have done in the past and say, "A bigger and better pep squad for the future."

Much pep was installed in the selling of football tickets. Mary Jane Sloan won a sweater by proving herself a good sales talker.

Don't forget our aim—More pep next year!!!!

WINK HIGH SCHOOL BAND

The band was organized at the beginning of the year with about sixteen members. The organization grew rapidly and before the term was over there were forty-five members. The band played for practically all football games, basketball games and made several parades and a few short trips. The best trip made this year was the trip to Fort Stockton with the football team. The High School Band plans to make the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention held in Abilene, Texas, May 29, 30 and 31. There will be a band contest held in connection with this and the band and its director have high hopes of winning a prize.

The members of the band are:

Saxophones—Robert Kelly, Ralph Griggs, Junior Race, Russell Fitzgerald, Allen McMurray.
 Baritones—Vernon, Dutton, Billie Rush.
