Editor: "This line is devoted to Philip."

Reader: "Philip who?"

Editor: "To Philip Space."

Miss Riddles: "Yes, I'm a mind reader. I can tell exactly what a person is thinking."

Lawrence Rush: "In that case, I beg your pardon."

Jim Wilson: "(Hic) What kind of a car is she coming in?"

Charles Wight: "She's (Hic) coming in a Ford-Chevrolet."

Jim Wilson: "You don't tell me?"

Charles Wight: "Oh, no, I'm all wrong, she's coming in a Sedan-coupe."

Deep problems in Earl D'Arcy's life:

Who is General Science?

Who killed the Dead Sea?

Who painted the Red Sea?

Who is going to eat turkey when

It is fried in Greece?

Miss Riddles: "Clytie, have you read all of Chaucer's works?"

Clytie: "Oh, yes, I read all of his works as soon as they come out."

Hiawatha (suspecting a stand-up): "Looks as if Minnie has given me the Ha Ha."

Mary Jane: "Did you know that the French drink their coffee out of bowls?"

Annette Lee: "That's nothing. The Chinese drink their tea out of doors."

Steve Lindsey: (after accident) "Are you hurt, my boy?"

Butcher Boy (excitedly): "No, but I can't find my liver."

Mrs. Robinson: "What is an 'average'?"

Medina Sloan: "I'm not sure, but I think it has something to do with poultry, because I've heard of hens laying on them."
