Under the efficient direction of the Board of Education, the school has succeeded in accomplishing many of its ideals. Each member is vitally interested in the school, and this interest is reflected in the spirit of the school and in its activities.

Lee Johnson Superintendent

Mr. Johnson has devoted every effort in his attempt to set forth ideals of manhood and womanhood. His faithful performance of duty and his example of integrity and genuine manhood have done much toward the success of the Wink schools. Because of his friendliness, his sympathy, and his understanding, he has won the affection and esteem of all.

*Best Wishes
Lee Johnson*
