

The Dramatic Club—where students learn cooperation and independent thinking at the same time. ~ Tears, laughter, anger, love, sympathy, and all other emotions are expressed in theory and practice. It's a lot of hard work, but it's a lot of fun, too.

Boy Scouts ~ The Boy Scout program is sponsored by the Wink Public Schools. There are three active troops, numbers 63, 64, and 65, which emphasize character and citizenship training. O.O. Whitter, Paul Jette, Jr., Lloyd Goodwin, and Richard Tucker are scoutmasters.

Home Economics Club ~ Many and varied are the activities of this group. There are new dresses, new linens, crochet lessons, knitting lessons, and embroidery lessons. There are teas and parties, and pop corn sales, the proceeds of which are used to send representatives to the Home Economics Rally.

Girl Scouts ~ The Girl Scouts take part in a varied activity program which includes sports and crafts. Miss Bayless, the Captain, and Miss Davis, the Lieutenant, direct the activities of the Girl Scouts.

Tennis Club ~ This club has been organized for a period of three years. Membership is limited to twelve boys. A fee of fifty cents a semester is paid by each member. This fund is used to purchase tennis balls for the club.

The Drill Unit ~ The Drill Unit is composed of sixty ambitious High School girls who wished to contribute to the school program. The drills that this group presented were of a type which demanded concentrated effort and cooperation.