SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Words are sometimes a fine means of expressing our feelings, and yet at other times we find them quite inadequate. One of the times I find this true is on an occasion such as this when I am called upon to write a message to the students of W. H. S. Mere words fail to convey the depth of feeling which I have for you students. My work with young men and women has caused me to maintain an optimistic outlook on life. I am fully convinced that the youth of each generation is a little better than the youth of the preceding one and that the best boys and girls in the entire world live in Wink!
