

Community Life Revolve Around School and Students

For forty years the Wink school system has been the center of many activities. Changes have been made in the physical structure, but the spirit, standards of achievement, and traditions have remained constant.

