

Reflections of Year of 1967-68

In every school year there are always certain happenings which stand out in the minds of the students. Maybe it was the early-morning pep rallies, freshmen slave day, a class party or project. Or it might have been the excitement of Homecoming with its bonfire, football game, and dance. All these things are a part of the school year. These are the things that really make school fun.

Speaking of False Charm

Goofing off

What Hill?

Junior Pop Art Painters