

The Oil Patch

The Wink school stands where once the Indian roamed. Then the ranchers struggled to survive on this arid land. Oil was discovered near the present town of Wink on February 26, 1926. This brought people and prosperity to the area.

The Wink school system was established on April 30, 1928 and has remained a sentinel for learning and prosperity.

