

Jesse Abila

At sports he is a likely lad,
And at romance
he isn't bad.

Nanci Bounds

A small cute girl
with big blue eyes,
Who's smart, witty,
and very wise.

Belinda Clearman

She'll miss the boys
she used to kiss,
When she goes to ol' Fort Bliss.

Kathy Elliott

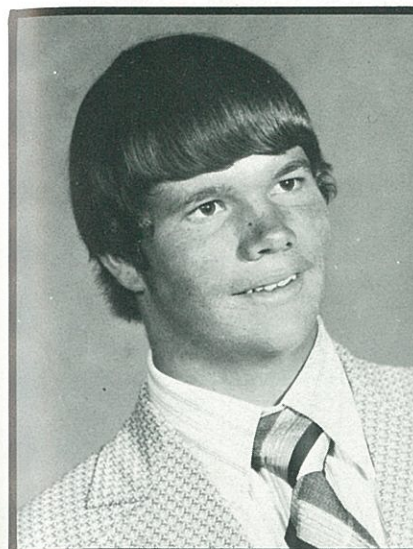

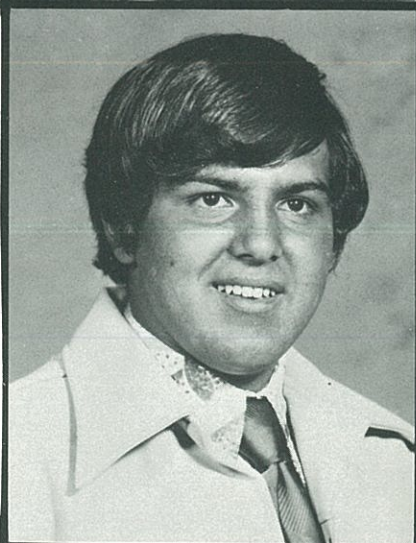

Her smiling face
will never sag
Since helping others
is her bag.

Santos Garcia

He works at the station
and fixes his car,
You can hear him zoom
from afar.

Darla Garland

Don't tell Darla
something funny,
She'll giggle till
the clouds turn sunny.

Randy Gray

Around the opposite sex
he's quiet and shy,
When a girl says "hello,"
he says "goodbye."

Delia Hernandez

A prettier girl is hard to find Unless you like the pale blonde kind.

Jerry Hogan

He likes to work to make some money,
In case he meets a real live honey.

Becky Hopper

She always wears a great big smile,
And her diamond ring
can be seen for a mile.

Debbie Hurst Dennis

Since a Wildcat has become her mate,
Twirling a baton
is second rate.

Teddy Inskeep

A rodeo cowboy may be his aim,
But now he tries
for a Wildcat dame.
