

Band Marches Its Way To First Division

The University Interscholastic League Marching Contest was October 4, 1983, at Ratliff Stadium, Odessa, Texas. The band practices everyday during class and on Monday nights to prepare for this competition. The band is judged on Musical and Marching Competencies, General Affect, General Appearance and Discipline. Three judges write their individual comments about the band in each category and then give the band a rating. The ratings are numbered 1 to V with I being superior. The Wildcat Band was given a I rating with some of the following comments by the judges: "Good execution," "Good style," "Nice show," "Beautiful appearing band."

