

Slave Day Fever Invades Freshmen

Slave Day is a time when the freshmen are initiated by upper classmen. The slaves are sold by the Student Council as a money-making project. This year the money made was used for the needy families in the community. This is a time freshmen will never forget!

HONORS

