In The Shadows Of The Crowd

Sophomores are like part of the middle children of a family of four. The oldest child gets looked up to for experience and guidance. The youngest child is the baby and gets looked at as the spoiled brat. The middle child is just there in the middle. They usually get the blame for everything, but when nothing is going on no one knows they are there. The Sophomores of Wink High School are part of our middle children, but they are also a very special part of this school.

Kristyl, Erika, Terry Alisa, and Kristi clown around during Chemistry. Wonder where Coach Hill was?
