

Horner's Hobbies

First Row- B. Nichols, J. Matthews, G. Franklin, C. Rios, N. Franklin, Second Row- S. Yates, E. Berry, K. Yates, A. Schuler, J. Dobson, C. Plunkett, Third Row- B. Jacobson, R. Burkhalter, Fourth Row- K. Jones, A. Gray, They are the cast and backstage crew for One-Act Play.

Sally is happy on her birthday. She told her mommy and daddy to listen to the soliders heartbeat. (Sally-Kristi Jones, Mommy-Adria Schuler, and Daddy-John Dobson.

The Good Fairy, Humpty Dumpty, and the monkey watch the witch make her entry. Humpty-John Matthews, The good Fairy-Alisa Gray, and the Monkey-Brian Nichols.

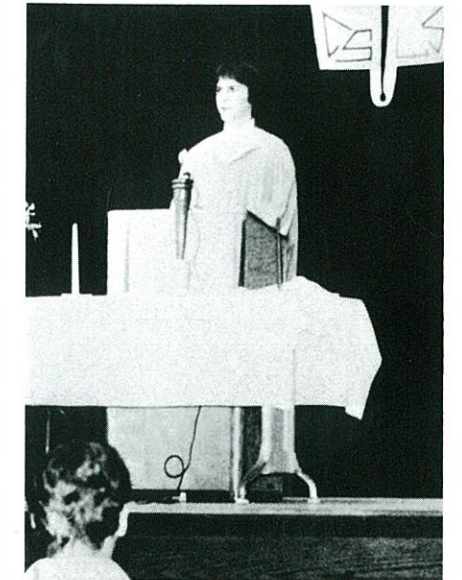

The wicked Witch, Cad, likes to destroy other peoples happiness. Things did not work out very well for the witch, played by Kristyl Yates.

Members of the National Honor Society for 1986-87. Front row: Janie Renteria, Shelly McDonald, Danny Carroll, Kimberly Dudley, Amy Landry, Garland Franklin. Back row: Martha Salazar, Rosa Rameriz, Junior Cobos, Tommy Beckham, Alisa Gray.

Garland Franklin, president of the National Honor Society, gives the welcome to the student body and visitors. The induction ceremony was well received by the student body.

Kim Dudley draps the new members with the collar that displays the National Honor Society symbol. This was a memorable event for everyone.

Martha Salazar lights her candle from the torch. The torch represented the knowledge which each member must uphold.