

Blood, Sweat, Tears . . .

V. Tennis

The 1986-87 tennis team had a very successful season. They played practice meets to get them prepared for the district meet. When they went to district they did very well by sending three to regional, Brett Jacobsen, Kristi Jones, and Veronica Serna. Jeff Jones and Junior Cobos placed 3rd. Shane Beeler, Tommy Beckham, Tony Roach, Erika Berry, Alisa Gray, Amy Landry, and Kristyl Yates played very hard but didn't place in the top three places. The tennis team is anticipating continued success in the future because they are losing only one senior.

1987 Tennis Team back row T. Beckham, B. Jacobsen, S. McDonald, J. Jones, S. Beeler, J. Cobos, front row V. Serna, K. Jones, A. Gray, A. Landry, K. Yates, E. Berry.

Jeff Jones returns the ball, while Junior Cobos anxiously awaited the volley.

Doubles team, Kristi Jones and Veronica Serna become a winning combination. They practiced in Kermit to perfect their technique.

Freshman, Brett Jacobsen hits a powerful forehand during the Wink Tournament. He volleyed to win the point.

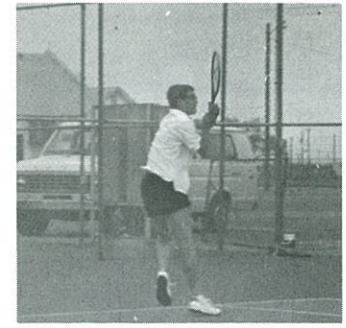

After playing the season with Tommy, Shane is learning to duck. Unfortunately, he was only able to get his head out of the way.

Alisa aces her opponent. Despite all her hard efforts, she was unable to win the game.

Brett struggles to get to the ball. He made an outstanding return to win the point.

Coach Crawford tries to reteach the basics to Junior and Tommy. To begin with, he taught them how to "coolly" pick up a tennis ball.