

On & Off

An oversized shirt most often decorates your denims, you'll see knit sweaters, pull-over oxford shirts and sweat shirts completing the casual blue jean style statement.

Stirrup pants paired with oversized T-shirts is a second style teens choose for school.

To dress it up a bit girls choose the layered look with a mini skirt, calf length pants

(short or rolled up), or even jeans. Guys like the simple long sleeve button-up oxfords with jeans and boots or boats (with no socks).

Jellies, plaids, army clothes, and bell-bottom pants hit bottom somewhere after jams and O.P.s. While knee socks, glitter bracelets, polyester pants, and parachut pants jumped from the plane many moons ago.

Taking it easy! Sean, Junior, and Bryan demonstrated that the laid back, casual look is in.

The "Pee Wee Herman" dance style is most definitely hot. Here Bill demonstrated just how hot it really is.

What's Hot What's Not

Teen trends are changing fast, below you will find a little of "what's hot" and what's not" including everything from sayings to hair styles.

The Wildcat Spirit is definitely in!! Here several Wildcats were shown, "Holding on to their dreams!"

The "boz" takes over! Bill and Tommy were one of the first football "studs" to get the "boz."

Tastey Talk

Time to get serious and take a look at the latest lingo. When it comes to being good, bad is still in, but sharp is poking through. Awesome is fading fast, while outragesness is just that. Gross to "gag a maggot" is really sickening, while "you be illing" is quite the opposite.
