

Junior seems to have his mind on some other thought. Kim watched her step in order not to slip and fall.

Seniors took one last group picture at the Jr. & Sr. Banquet. Some of them seemed to enjoy it but some definitely wanted to be somewhere else.

Joe Wall seemed to be ripping his hat for Melissa. Too bad Melissa's mind was elsewhere.

Bryan and Maria made a perfect entrance. They both looked great.

The Year Of The Dragon

May I have this dance? Krystal and Tony made a perfect pair Prom night.

Joe Wall and Melissa Lee made an elegant and attractive pair. Joe went for it all and Melissa definitely looked like a princess.

Amy Landry seemed to be enjoying herself Prom night. She really had a lot of fun.

Scott and Niki started the night off with all smiles. It was a fun evening for the both of them.

Kerry Don and Erika went for the gold. They sparkled all night long.

Tommy really had a better time than what he let people know.

"The year of the dragon" explains it all. Prom 1988 was different from all other proms. The theme this year was Here I Go Again.

Everyone put on their satin and lace and the guys wore their tuxes. All the bright colors made the decorations sparkle even more. Everyone was out to have a good and memorable time.

The cafeteria was decorated in red, black, and gold. The decorations were all oriental style. Everyone seemed to enjoy the dancing and being with their friends.

For the Seniors it was their last dance at W.H.S. The memories that were made that night will be treasured by these people for many years.
