Arcie Quiroz leads the processional. Graduating Seniors were honored with a standing room only audience.

Mr. Dodd presents the Class of 88 to John Solls, Superintendent, and Mike Jones, Board President.

Our hope for the future. Jeffrey Jones and Veronica Serna, both recipients of the Greatest Wildcat award, seemed to anticipate a bright future.

Tension builds as the graduating class awaits their diplomas. The eighth graders examined their certificates as they watched their class mates.

Joe Wall supervises the putting on of the caps. Salina Jones, Veronica Serna and Christina Garcia debated which side to wear the rassel.

John Solls presents Jason Bounds his certificate. Jason was one of almost forty students to be promoted to high school.
