

The Wink fans stayed at the game even though it was very cold and the game was very long.

The Wink football team shows unity as they shake each others hands after the game was over. The Wildcats were victorious by a large margin of 83-0.

During the pep rally Mr. Dodd is ready to present an old football to Mr. Sollis as a joke. Mr. Sollis accepted the ball with good sportsmanship.

The Homecoming candidates were presented to a very small crowd. The crowd was small due to concern for the life of a little girl named Jessica, who had been trapped in an abandoned water well for 58½ hours. The fans were torn between the homecoming activities and the anticipation of Jessica's rescue. At about 8:15 p.m. she had been rescued and the fans started pouring into the stands.

Due to the loss to Del City the previous year the football team went out onto the field thinking it was going to be a very tough game. At the end of the first half the score was 62-0 in favor of the Wildcats. The second half the coaches agreed to run the clock, but the Wildcats were forced to gain 21 more points before the game ended. The Wildcats shut out the Cougars with a score of 83-0 for a fantastic Homecoming win.

During the Del City game the Wildcats show their ability to score more points as they work hard on their blocks and their running through the open holes. The final score was an embarrassing score of 83-0.

The cheerleaders show their spirit as they build it up at the pep rally. The varsity cheerleaders were assisted by the Junior varsity cheerleaders.

Mike Jones and Bill Beckham are waiting to present flowers to this years homecoming queen and her court. They waited patiently until the candidates appeared.

The bon fire waits to be torched. The fire was burned to ashes before the team and fans got out to watch it burn.