

Working Hard At What They Do Best

Linda Soltero is giving Sandra Wilson a message to relax her from her tension throughout the day. Eldon Price cheered them on with words of encouragement.

Tina Hawkins is admiring Tom Selleck's body and wishing that she was with him instead of at work. She smiled while she pointed at his gorgeous body.

Yvonne Ratliff is supervising her staff workers. They were waiting for the big crowd of the high school students.

Sharon Winn is the librarian for Wink High School and the Junior High School students. She is also a Spanish teacher and supervises the elementary library.

Barbara Richardson is the counselor for the students in Wink High School. She helps students get into college and she gives all kinds of tests to the students.

Harry Sharp is one of the custodians. His most important job is helping kids across the street after school. Johnnie Garcia supervises all of the custodians. He is always around when he is needed. Doris Dodd is the High School and Elementary school nurse. During the year she gently cared for students who were sick or injured.

Paula Cole supervises the computer room. She always kept current on the new developments in the industry.

Suzanne Oglesby reaches speech in the elementary school. She is also a therapist.

Jo Ann Woodard is an M.M.S. Operator and she types in resources but she also gets our resources for teachers. She helps work with the Wicar System.
