

The Ways Of The Wild . . .

I'm practicing relaxation for when I'm rich and famous!

As you can see, we lead a very crazy life here at our Wink school. We really know how to BE wild and how to ACT wild. These pictures reflect the things we do during our every day lunch periods, and also the wacky, weird things some kids will do to get noticed.

Poor bug. They didn't even give him a chance to cross the road.

I declare myself "King of the Mountain!"

I can't believe I'm standing around here with all these . . . Imposters.

You didn't tell me it was Lemon-flavored!

*We just got back from our Dallas Cowgirls tryouts!
Do you think you could take off a few inches here?*
