

We've Got The Looks!

Students and teachers in Wink have ways about them that no other school can match. Everyone does just about their own thing. No one person is the same as another. Each person contributes their individuality to the style that is Wink's alone.

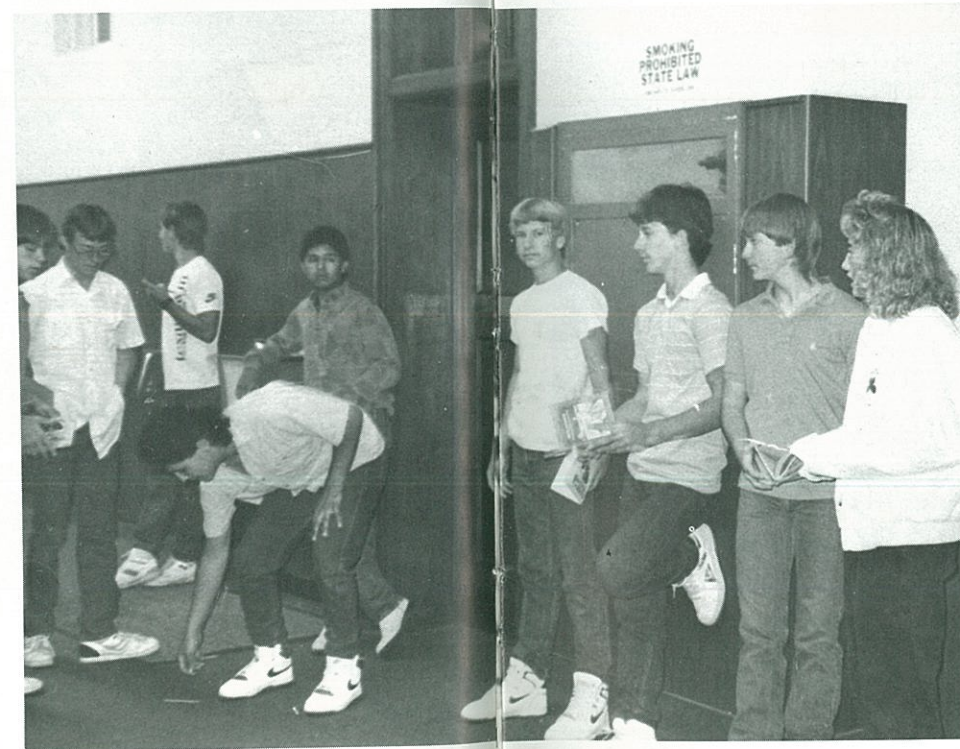

These kids may be starting fads of their own.

Mmm, I don't think so!

Just like a button, always popping off!

Freshmen learn responsibility the costly way. They lined up down the hall to pay fines on over due library books.

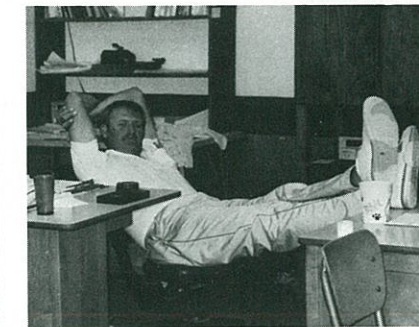

Melissa thought she was big enough to conceal both Junior and Kristyl but, little did she know, they were sharing the spotlight with her.

Shawn Matthews, Desiree' Bickle, and Amanda Haring prepare for the holidays in animal fashion.

Volleyball: The family sport. Kristyl and Shellie have the look of Wildcat champions.

Mr. Evans found a Halloween duck and brought it to class for show and tell.

Now we know what he really does!

Yep, I'm a loner.
