

Call Of The Wild

Being a cheerleader takes a lot of hard work and dedication. They have to give their best and do whatever it takes. They also have to have fun in order to make things work out right. It takes up all their spare time and it seems as though the year will never end. Camp in San Marcos was fun, but by the time the end of the week came along, everyone was ready to come home. Cheerleading is not just all fun and games. It takes a lot of work to fire up the Cats and let them know they're behind them. Kristyl, Melissa, Sonia, Alisa, Kristi, and Erika want the Cats to know that they are and always will be #1, no matter what.

Open up and say "ahh"!

Could Kristyl, Sonia, and Kristi really be taking a break from their hard loving cheerleading jobs?

Everyone smiles for the camera, and Kristi acts like she is really trying to do something.

Alisa is really working on a cheer and Sonia can't believe it. This could be the start of something.

Raise your hands if you're sure the 'Cats are #1.

Kristyl Yates, SR.

Melissa Lee, SR.

Sonia Lopez, JR.

Alisa Gray, SR.

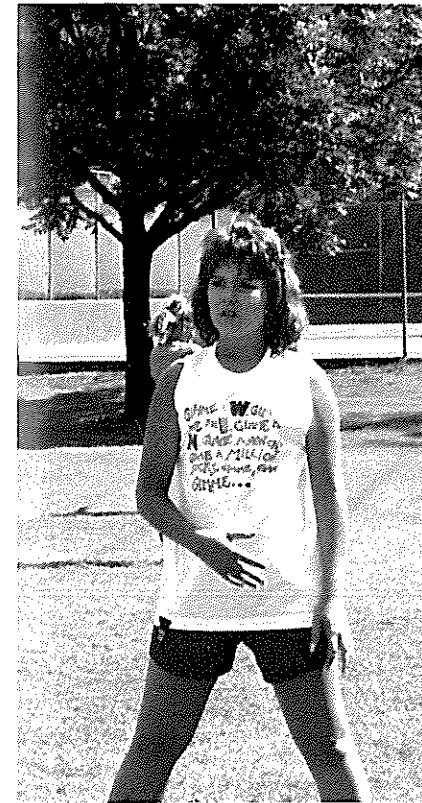

Kristi Jones, SR.

Erika Berry, alt., SR.

Erika looks as though she's getting a bad case of cheeritis. She couldn't possibly be tired of camp, could she?

The cheerleaders were proud to show their spirit for the 'Cats throughout the 1988-89 season.
