

Jungle Triathletes Golf, Track, . . .

The 1988-'89 golf season went exceptionally well. The boys team placed first in District which was held in Ft. Stockton and Monahans. Terry Warren placed third as an individual. The girls team placed second at District which was also held in Ft. Stockton and Monahans. Both teams advanced to Regionals. This year's season was quite an experience for the golfers. It has improved their skills and will prove to be helpful in the years to come.

Back row: Earl Stanley, Terry Warren, Scott McDonald, Ken Lofgren, Jason Bounds, and Michael Sharp. Front row: Alisa Gray, Stacy Maddux, Christina Rios, Stacy Mullenex, Niki Franklin, and Becky Kemp.

Coach Burnett works with Brian Nichols to improve his swing.

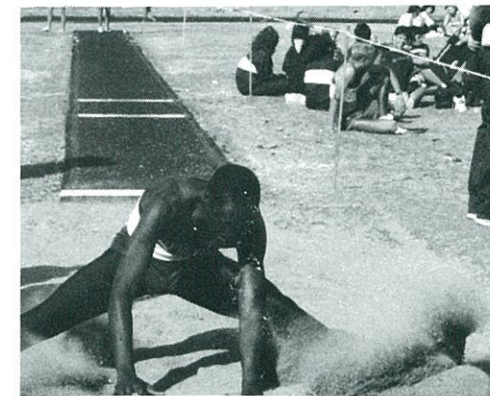

If at first you don't succeed, try, try, again. Terry Warren practiced what he preached.

Alisa Gray accepts the plaque for the team's District Championship for 1989.

This year's track teams were very successful. The girl's won the District Championship for the second year in a row, while the boys came in close at third. Thirteen people advanced to Regionals, But none advanced to the State meet.

John Matthews' style of longjumping may become the style of winners.

Junior looks as though the day has finally caught up with him.

Kristyl Yates clears the first hurdle with looks of determination.

Freshmen Sami Jones and Isabel Rios prove their willpower during the mile run at District.