

Homecoming 1989 started out great! There was a huge pep rally and bon fire on Thursday. The team really got fired up and ended up winning against the Dell City Cougars 41 to 14. The homecoming nominees were Niki Franklin, Minnie Martinez, and Jessica Martinez. Niki Franklin took the honor of homecoming queen for her second year in a row.

Niki Franklin, homecoming queen, and her court Minnie Martinez and Jessica Martinez.

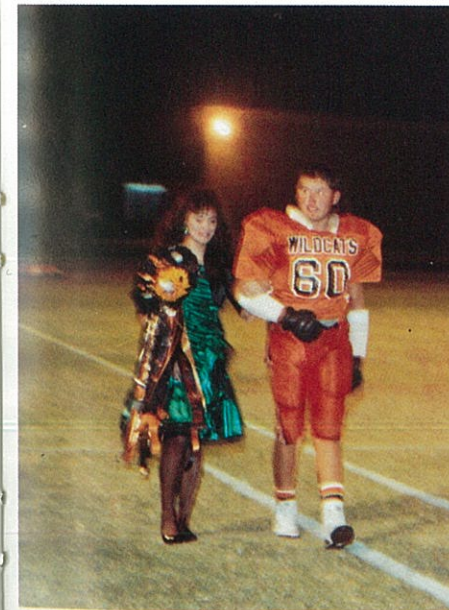

Angie poses for a picture, while Christina continue to cheer on the Wildcats.

Minnie Martinez, homecoming nominee, and her escort Tonka Rios prepare for their walk down the field.

Brett Jacobsen helps homecoming queen, Niki Franklin, adjust her crown.

Manuel Valenzuela looks proud to be escorting his cousin homecoming queen nominee Jessica Martinez.

Shellie, Mariela, Amy, and Genniva show off their mums. It's hard to tell where the mums end and the girls begin!

Cheerleaders show their spirit as they build a pyramid at the homecoming pep rally.

The Wildcat band warms up to play for the exciting football game.

The football team shows their spirit as they pose in front of their well built bon fire.