

The Final Check

As the year comes to an end, let's check back and see what went on during the 1989-1990 school year. Many students were ready for the year to be over. Students weren't the only ones; teacher's here have had their ups and downs too. Here we have captured some of those great moments that happened during the 1989-1990 school year at Wink High School.

Mrs. Sollis takes a quick nap, while Mr. Sollis sits by her and listens to her snore.

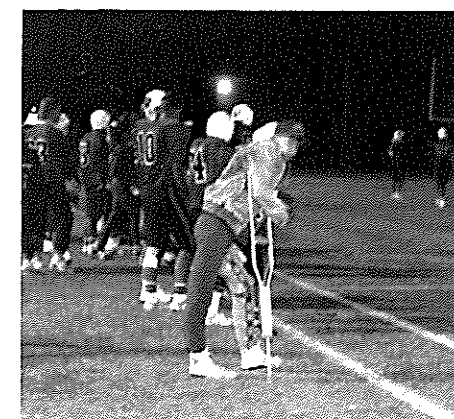

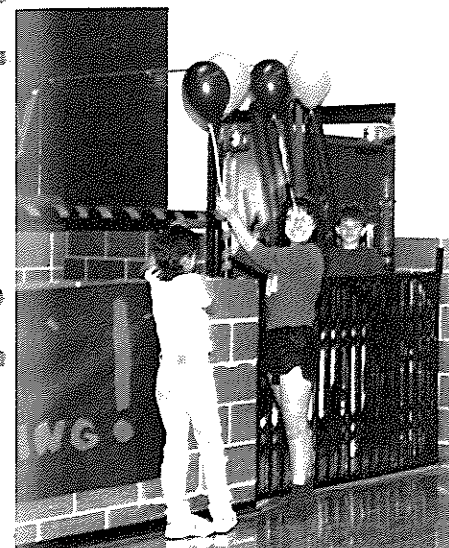

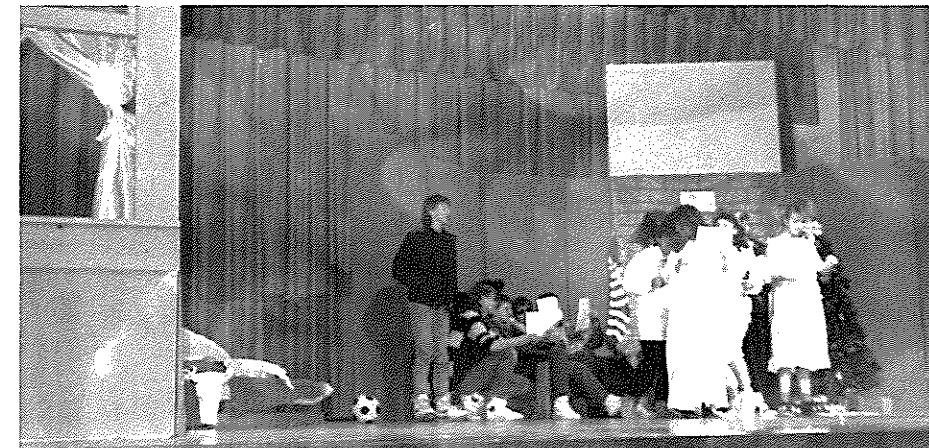

The Class of 1990 are all smiles because they know its almost time for them to get out of Wink High School and get out there in the real world.

Made in their Shades; at least that's what they thought.

The Sophomores took time to sing Christmas carols for the students at Wink High School.

Minnie M. puts on a big smile, while decorating the gym for the pep rally.

Mr. Evans is trying to explain to Melinda, but she got distracted by the camera.

Ken L. stands on the side line waiting for the Cats to make another touchdown.

Karina C. and Kristi N. enjoy their snacks during activity period.

These sophomore girls look like they need to revive with vivarin.

J.R. Lopez gets all the attention with his orange colored hair.
