

Spirit Check

Checking for spirit at Wink, is really no problem. Everybody finishes out with a check plus. Cheerleaders, coaches, football boys, band, students, and fans do everything they can to get fired-up for the football games. Everyone shows what having Wildcat Pride really means at Wink High.

The Varsity Cheerleaders, April J., Minnie M., Claudia V., Amy S., and Christina R. boost the spirits at the pep rally before the Wildcats long trip to Whiteface.

The Wildcats run onto the astroturf field at Ratliff Stadium before facing the Garden City Bearcats. The Wildcats came up with a loss which cost them the Area championships.

Lane T., Tonka R., George R., Andy S., Jason B., Wayne D., and Brett J., show their good sportsmanship by wearing their ties. when they lost the bet they made with Mr. Sollis. If the Wildcats had won the game, Mr. Sollis would have paraded the halls in jams.

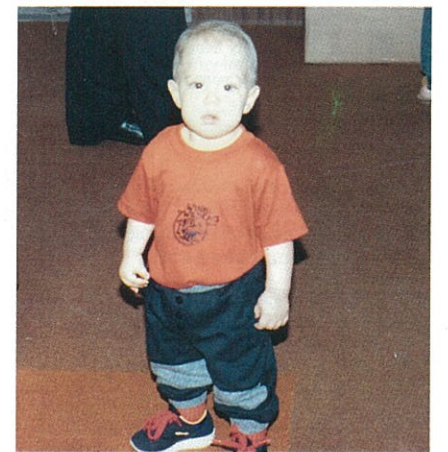

Shade the Cougars! These Wildcats show their true spirit by wearing their shades on "Shade out the Cougars Day."

The Wink students have really enjoyed Activity period because it gives them time to pose for a picture and chow down like Amy Soltero and Sami Jones are doing.

Crazy Day! Trey Dennis admires the orange hair on the 7th grade girls' hair.

Shelton Burnett, son of athletic director David Burnett, gets an early start on spirit. The 1 1/2 old Wildcat attended every pep rally.

Get Wild! Get Crazy! No Need to be Lazy!

Sock-it-to-'Em! The cheerleaders and Heber Mendoza really want to Sock-it to the Cougars, if they can find the energy.
