

Seniors Take Charge!

The senior class of 1990 consists of a very unique group. These guys and gals are all their own individuals with many different goals for their future that they want to accomplish. This bunch is a very special class. They have had their share of ups and downs, but some how they have always managed to come up on top!

The seniors take advantage of their five minute breaks in between class to all come together and make school a little bit more interesting for the underclassmen.

The welding class shows off their barbecue pit. It was a lot of hard work but they managed to put it together.

Adria Shuler, Melissa Holcomb, and Cristi Plunkett are trying to decide what their sewing project will be.

Senior Class Officers: Michael Warner, Student Council Rep.; Monica Quiroz, Student Council Rep.; Christina Rios, Secretary-Treasurer; Niki Franklin, President; Brett Jacobsen, Vice-President.

Senior Student Council Representatives: Monica Quiroz and Michael Warner.

Christina Rios and Niki Franklin are listening very closely to Brett Jacobsen trying to explain the quote "To Be or Not to Be."

Ms. Thomas walks down the hall to see what all the commotion is about, only to find out it is just the seniors sitting on the stairs.

Mr. Henson, another one of the senior sponsors, finds himself surrounded by a few of the senior girls.
