

A Check-Up On Life

Students have fun with the daily things that involve school. They try different and new things that get many people to notice that school's not just all work and no play. There are a few times when fun enters the picture. And when fun hits, the students make the best of it.

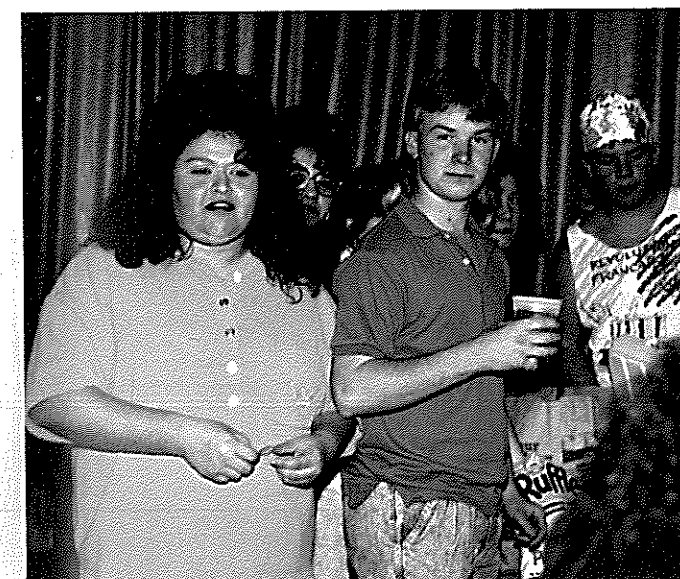

"Oh, it doesn't hurt that bad," Stephanie Maddux tells J. R. Lopez. Adria Shuler and Sonia Lopez are ready to deliver flowers sold by the senior class for Valentine's Day. The class sold 502 flowers and made one dollar a flower.

Shellie Yates and Mr. Henson pose huge smiles to match.

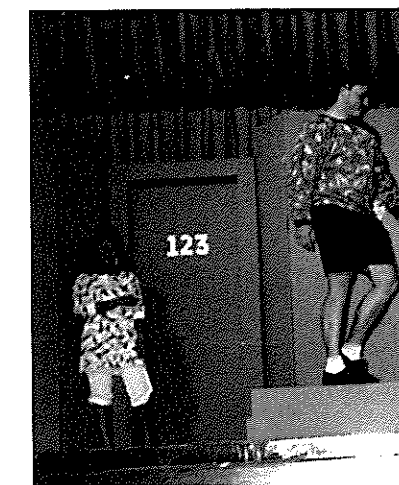

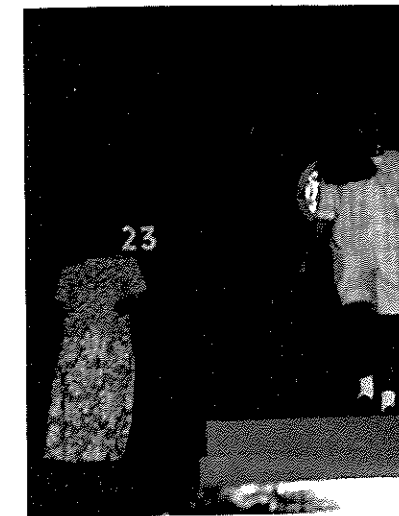

The homemaking class modeled clothes that travel from place to place by McCall's.

"Hurry and get me off this stage!" Santa (Chris Haley) tells his eight tiny reindeer.

"You're coming with me!" Adria Shuler tells Twila Collins as she drags her to the senior jail.

Christina Rios and Curtis Halliburton enjoy being noticed while modeling for their style show.

I wonder what kind of face Zeke Rios is making in order for everyone to be staring at him.
