

Checkin' Out Your Favorites!

This fall the student body answered a questionnaire about their favorites. The ballots were counted and the following is the outcome: favorite color, blue; favorite hangout, parking lot; favorite food, pizza; favorite sport, football; favorite magazine(s), Teen and Sports Illustrated; favorite class, History; and favorite song, "Girl I'm Gonna Miss You."

What you talking about Willis? Troy Ratliff, Jason Bounds, George Ramirez, Lorenzo Valeriano, and Zeke Rios spend their night at the parking lot.

Zeke Rios puts head in hand when the coaches tell him there will be no seconds. Jimmy Barger and Andy Soltero seem to be amused at Zeke's antics.

Manuel Valenzuela, Billy Plunkett, and Troy Ratliff are learning about one of the other votes for favorite class, Economics.

Although blue was chosen as favorite color, every true-blooded Wildcat has throughout the year supported orange and black as the colors of victory and of pride. Here a few of the Wink fans help do just that, John Blakeney, Armando Ramirez, and Tony Williams.

The Wink Wildcats come off the field after a successful play. Wayne Davis, Richard Arron, Jason Bounds, Earl Stanley, and Brett Jacobsen worked very hard this year to please the Wildcat fans.
