

Homecoming is an event every one enjoys. In our 1990 Homecoming we had some of our Ex's come down. The focus was on the class of 1940. Ex's came back as far as the 1930's.

We had something different to boost spirit. On Homecoming week we have something different day. Monday we had shade day, Tuesday-sock it to 'em day, Wednesday-Inside-out day, Thursday-twin day and Friday- Orange and Black day.

We have two pep rallies on Homecoming week. One special one is on Thursday night and afterwards we walk to the bonfire. Then Friday afternoon we have another pep rally in the auditorium. On Thursday night the cheerleaders did a skit and the Flag girls did a dance. On Friday the cheerleaders did a dance.

On Friday, we had the ugliest teacher contest. All week long students put money in the teachers cans. Whoever had the most money in their can had to kiss a real live pig. The money that was raised went to Cindy Webber for therapy. Mr. Sollis "won" this contest.

We had three nominees for our Homecoming queen. Amy Soltero was escorted by Andy Soltero; Sami Jones escorted by Wayne Davis; and Claudia Valeriano escorted by Manuel Valenzuela. This year Claudia Valeriano won.

Students, Ex's, Faculty, Administration, and parents enjoyed the victory we had over Marfa. The score was 14-7.

After the game we had two dances. One is held at the cafeteria for students, and the other is held at the Expo building for all the Ex's.

Stepping Out Into Homecoming

These Homecoming nominees look like they are having a blast!

My hat looks better than yours!

Homecoming nominee, Amy Soltero is escorted by Andy Soltero.

Homecoming nominee, Sami Jones is escorted by Wayne Davis.

Our Homecoming queen, Claudia Valeriano is escorted by Manuel Valenzuela.

These cool cats are wearing their sunglasses to boost spirit.

Oh! No, it's twins!

Here comes double trouble.

These are what you cool dudes!