

Stepping Out To Lunch

Being a Wink student in the class room requires hard work and dedication. Turning in homework and completing assignments takes a lot of time. But during the lunch hour of each day the students have time to relax. Some of them were asked what their favorite and least favorite classes were and why.

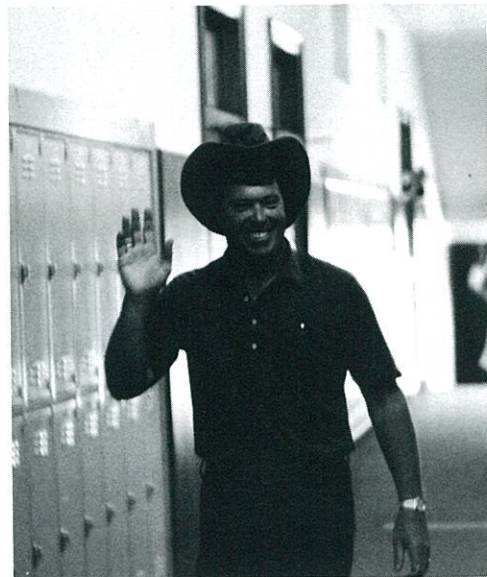

Favorite classes
John Sollis- Shop because you get to mess with wood

Cody Dossey- History because its fun

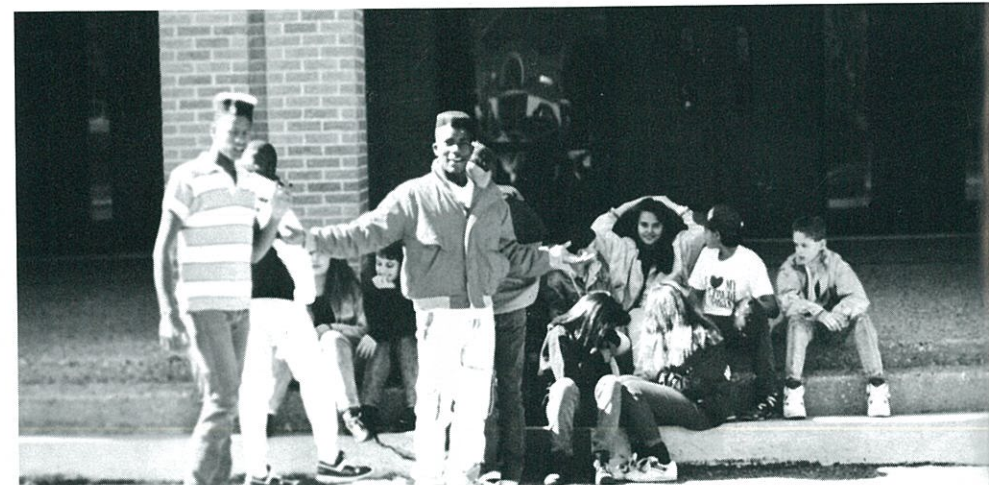

Jens Moog-Band because its easy and fun.

Coach Burnett gives a friendly smile as he gets ready to back to work.

This is my favorite time of day!

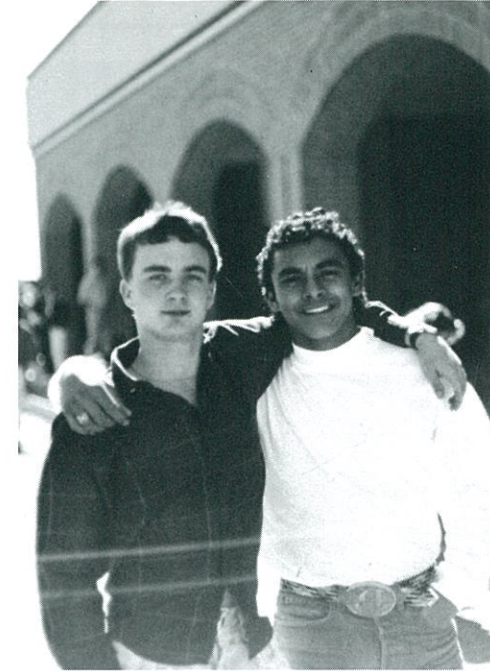

You can tell it's lunch time. Students show their spirit on crazy hats day.

Amy enjoys her lunch time with good friends.

Troy and Andy show their friendship during lunch.

Least Favorite Classes
Trey Bustamonte- Spanish because it's hard.

J.R. Glenn-Computers because it's hard to understand.

Elizabeth Kennedy-Health because we have too much work.

Shannon Parnam-Math because its hard.

Oh No, a camera!

Oh my goodness! Pictures make me so nervous.
