In 1990 we saw the beginning of the Jr. High girls basketball program. Even though they were not very successful in the victory column, this team did learn quite a bit about the game of basketball. The team played five regular season games and participated in the Buena Vista Tournament.

The Jr. High volleyball team had a successful season. They were dedicated to winning and did a good job. These girls worked hard. The girls had support of parents, friends, and fans. This helped their success, knowing everyone was behind them.
