

Last Dance

As the year comes to an end everyone has prom, finals, and for some, graduation to prepare for. After all the money and preparation, Wink's juniors and seniors arrived at the cafeteria to eat and dance the night away.

The night started at the junior-senior banquet decorated in metallic green, purple and silver. It was presided over by junior class president Dustin Burrows.

At 9:00 everyone lined up for the grand march, with a castle back drop, lined with balloon bouquets. The theme of the prom was Sherwood Forest and the song was 'Everything I Do, I Do It for You'. Music was by Tunes Across Texas for prom-goers to dance among a forest made of evergreen trees.

On May 22 the 30 graduates lined up to enter the auditorium for the last time as a Wink High School student. Valedictorian and salutatorian of the 1992 senior class were Genniva Isbell and Rudy Salinas.

Juniors and seniors enjoyed roast beef, green beans, baked potatoes, rolls and cheese cake at the banquet sponsored by the juniors.

Dressed in black pants & tuxedo shirts with metallic bow ties & cummerbunds, Karina Carrillo, Shannon Parham, Stephanie Maddux & Erin Jones served the banquet.
