

Head Of The Class

Freshmen, the youngest group in high school, struggle to keep up with the upperclassmen. As the youngest on the WHS family tree, they get showered with attention, and pranks. Working hard to gain their independence and make an impression, freshmen learn to be responsible as they adjust to high school life.

Merrick Brown strikes a pose "Vogue".

Armando Ramirez and Kristy Northcutt quarrel over who gets what desk.

Freshmen officers are Wayne Gunn, president; Shawn Johnson, vice president; E. Jones, secretary. Not shown: Student Council Representatives Merrick Brown and Karina Carrillo.
